

NEWSLETTER

4 TERM 2023

Dissemination and Communication strategy: Guido Stirnimann, Javier Cubero, Aurélie Papineau, Einar S. Björnsson

- We invite you to send us any relevant news related to our DHILI topic (conferences, seminars, publications, talks...) in which you are involved for all of our communication channels.
- Twitter metrics: engagement rate in September: 5.2%, which means a high engagement rate. Keep on pushing!

Educational activities: Anna Licata, Jane Grove, Marina Villanueva, Ann Daly

- We are preparing to launch the Young Investigators Afterworks series, following on from the successful COST ACTION CA-17112 Young Investigator Series. We need ideas on topics and participation.

DHILI-EUROTOX: Joana Miranda, Michel Kranendonk, Thomas Hammond

- Promoting joint activities with EUROTOX
- Rolling Program Continuous Education Course: open call for proposals.

Centers of Excellence: Guru P. Aithal, Raúl J. Andrade

The EASL Centers of Excellence Project is still in the development stages, and has not officially been launched yet. Wouter Kruijs, the head of Association & Community Services will inform Francesco Paolo Russo, the EASL External Affairs Councillor, about our interest in the Project.

We need to establish criteria to become a center of excellence in DILI.

We need your suggestions.

WE NEED TO HEAR YOUR IDEAS

Together we can go further

<https://easldhiliconsortium.eu>

@easldhili

EASL DHILI consortium